

Former Buchanan resident publishes book

Titan's Tales and Other Dog Adoption Love Stories is a book paying tribute to shelter dogs, their caregivers and their new families. Former Buchanan resident, Julie Holmes Chalpan (along with her husband, Keith), adopted Titan, a Jack Russell/beagle mix, more than 12 years ago from a shelter near Atlanta, Ga. Titan is now 14 and she thought it was high time to write down his stories.

Chalpan talked with 38 people from all over the country to hear their stories of how they were rescued by their shelter dog. These 39 heartwarming stories, including Titan's, make up Titan's Tales. The book is available for purchase

Julie Holmes Chalpan and Titan online at www.titanstales.com or Almost Home, Buchanan Art Center, and Union Coffee House in Buchanan, Mi.; Your Kitchen Connection in Niles; and the Humane Society of Southwestern Michigan in Benton Harbor. Two local dogs and their adoptive parents (Buchanan and Stevensville) are included in the book, along with five former Michiana residents, including Chalpan.

"This is a real labor of love for me," says Chalpan. "As Titan gets older, it became more and more important for me to write down his stories, and I thought it would be great to share others' stories of how they were rescued by their dogs and the whole adoption experience."

Chalpan is the daughter of Roma Holmes and Don Holmes of Buchanan, and sister of Bonnie (Holmes) Chadderdon of Niles. She has been volunteering with local shelters and dog-related groups for more than a year now, and has supported the shelter from which Titan was rescued since they adopted him. Titan was rescued by the Gwinnett Humane Society, near Atlanta, Ga., from a no-kill shelter on his "kill day" at an animal control facility in north Atlanta. The Chalpan's are still in touch with the volunteer who rescued him that day, and in fact, she wrote the foreword for the book.

"We are so grateful for Titan's rescuer and thankful for all of the people who work tirelessly to save these wonderful dogs," said Chalpan. "The unconditional love and pure joy a dog can bring to you and your family is not to be missed, and I am blessed to have Titan in my life."

When Chalpan isn't writing books about dogs or playing with them, she runs her national public relations firm, Focus Unlimited PR.
